WELCOME!
WWW.ROMANIKA.NET is the site of our research time working on the project «The Romanesque between the Sava and the Drava Rivers and European Culture» supported by the Ministry of Science of the Republic of Croatia, which is here acknowledged with gratitude. However, since the site is financed and administered by ourselves, and not by the Project, it should not be interpreted as the Project Site, but as the means whereby we tell our friends and colleagues, and any one interested in the art of the past, about our activities going far beyond the scope of the project itself.
